A Victorian end terraced house providing spacious two bed roomed house that could easily be offered as three bed roomed accommodation.

To the ground floor is a large through lounge diner, which was originally two rooms, now converted to a large single reception room. To the rear is the kitchen equipped with a fridge, freezer and washing machine.

The first floor are two double sized bedrooms and the bathroom.

All windows are fully double-glazed and a new central heating system was fitted in 2006.

Outside is a spacious secure rear yard and plenty of space to park cars on the street.
